

Prodigal Prophecies??? When Will Evangelist/Pastor Barbara Admit Aaron is the Prodigal?

By Christopher & Kathryn

We continue to be inundated with prophetic word after prophetic word from Evangelist/ Pastor Barbara Lynch regarding the return of the “Prodigals”. This appears to be an admirable thing; however, there is an ulterior motive present in what she is doing.

In the December 7, 2025 Sun Pm service another prophecy about “Prodigals” was given by Evangelist/Pastor Barbara Lynch Click Here to Listen. Veiled in secrecy is the notion that she is speaking in code to her love "Aaron Betz". You can hear it in the way that she talks about the “Prodigals” that she somehow has twisted it in her mind that this is a private message of her longing for her one, true love to return home to her. She recently admitted that God told her He needed her to work on her love walk (to Listen Click Here). She took this to mean that she needed to go deeper in the love that she carries for Aaron. Why? So, promises would be fulfilled that she and Aaron could go forth together to do the "Greater Works" for the Father.

She has convinced herself that nothing else will work and this is wholeheartedly what God the Father wants for Aaron and her. There is no turning back. It doesn't matter if Aaron left the Lighthouse Inc., Church, it doesn't matter who does not agree with her. She knows the secret of God's heart for her destiny. It is without a shadow of a doubt, God marrying the young (Aaron) with the old (Evangelist/Pastor Barbara). It has to work this way because the voice that she's been listening to said, “Just believe. Don't question Me”. There is no fruit that has come from this specific merger. This deception that is taking place is working to bring complete destruction into her and Aaron's lives. She is waiting, she is wooing the “Prodigal” to return to her, and she will continue until he walks back into the doors of the Lighthouse Inc. Church. This is sad on so many levels, and we wish that this was different but until she fully repents from her heart there is nothing left for us to pray, say, or do. We are highlighting a prophetic word that was put out by Evangelist/Pastor Barbara Lynch in regard to the “Prodigals”. We feel sorry for her.

This latest revelation is filled with hope for a new love that springs eternally between Aaron & Evangelist/Pastor Barbara. Let's dissect this latest word...

Fresh Word – Prodigal- Evangelist Pastor Barbara – December 6, 2025

Let it be known among the nations that the King of Kings is coming back for a spotless bride. One without spot or wrinkle. I have been wooing My church for decades and they have been spitting in My face for just as long.

I have now turned My back on the naysayers, and I am reaching out to the unchurched. The lost and dying. I am pouring My Spirit upon all flesh. Joel has begun and it will continue until the second coming of My Son Jesus.

The hour is late, and I have moved on. Revival is breaking out all over the nations. Multitudes are still in the valley of decision. Prodigals are coming back home, with their hearts changed and a fight in their spirits. They know what the enemy can and cannot do and they will fight him every step of the way. They will do anything in their power to save the lost.

The prodigals know what it is like to eat with the pigs and wallow in the filth of the world. They also know that I am calling them home with arms wide open to receive them back into their rightful places in My kingdom.

They will not be complacent; they have become warriors for the cross. They will stand up and fight. They will stand shoulder to shoulder with the Remnant.

EYE HAS NOT SEEN NOR EAR HEARD WHAT I AM ABOUT TO DO.

“This prophetic word started off in truth, God is coming back for a spotless bride, one without spot or wrinkle but things become questionable as you read further along.

Let's talk about the rest of this mess...

We understand God has been wooing His church for decades. We understand people who say they follow the Lord, privately living a lifestyle outside of God. With God exposing the deep cold hard truth behind scandal after scandal in the Church, We understand how God would say the Church has been spitting in His face for just as long. For years, Leaders in the Body of Christ have purposely deceived the Children of God. Holding revivals with false teachings and doctrines, using the people of God to provide a lavish lifestyle for themselves, performing lying signs and wonders as if God was doing something with them and that He was apart of this whole revival mess. They went forth enticing the people of God to believe false miracles all to make themselves appear to be special and elite. They are pretending to be something that they are not. We understand why God would feel this way about His Church.

What we don't understand is this...If God is pouring His Spirit upon "all" flesh, what does that mean for the naysayers? Are they not flesh? Are they not considered lost and dying? Will they have no hope of a Savior forever? Has their time come to a complete end? All is a big little word. Does all still mean all? How would the naysayers have a chance to have a change of heart if God's Spirit does not draw them to Him? It doesn't make sense for this statement to be a part of this prophetic word. For months now, the word "naysayer" has been used against those who do not agree with the prophetic words that are coming out of the mouth of Evangelist/Pastor Barbara Lynch. We believe this line is not of God but is intended to be used as a dig to those who she wants to prove wrong within the community of the Church.

The hour is late, and God is moving on, but what has He moved on from if He's pouring out His Spirit upon all flesh? This is an honest question. Revival is breaking out all over the nations (With exception of the United States - see the latest Pew Research polls - click here This is a lie "revival" is not breaking out all over the nations). Many in the Church have a desire for revival to breakout to claim the role they would play. With false humility, they want the "Glory". They want people see how important they are to God. The Body of Christ must return to their first love with true repentance before God can honor or even appear at a true revival.

Multitudes are still in the valley of decision. (HMMMM, does this include the naysayers? Does this include the Church who has been spitting in His face for decades? I assume the unchurched, the lost and dying are included in this as well) Prodigals are coming back home, with their hearts changed and a fight in their spirits. (They are not coming back home in the United States. Why do the prodigals have a fight in their spirits? Who are they fighting? Why are they fighting? What are they fighting for? Big question what scripture in the Bible says that the prodigal came home and was ready to fight? We looked but we couldn't find this scripture!) They know what the enemy can and cannot do and they will fight him every step of the way. (We are confused why are the prodigals fighting the enemy?) They will do anything in their power to save the lost. (Is it only the prodigals who have the ability to fight the enemy? Again, we don't see this in scripture. Please help us understand! We want to understand! This prophetic word is a lot of bull doody!)

The prodigals know what it is like to eat with the pigs and wallow in the filth of the world. (This is scriptural! Bravo!) They also know that I am calling them home with arms wide open to receive them back into their rightful places in My kingdom. (This is not scriptural! The Father did not call them back home! He did have His arms open ready to receive the prodigal but He wasn't standing there waiting, crying, moaning, groaning... "Oh please come home prodigal, Please!)

They will not be complacent; they have become warriors for the Cross. (Good, this is good!) They will stand up and fight. They will stand shoulder to shoulder with the Remnant.

EYE HAS NOT SEEN NOR EAR HEARD WHAT I AM ABOUT TO DO. (This is true! I wish that the Church and the false prophets (Cindy Jacobs, Chuck Pierce, Dutch Sheets, Evangelist/Pastor Barbara and others would admit this!) We cannot wait for the day when they all stop lying and pretending that they know what God is doing! Foolishness! Utter foolishness!)
